Primary School entrants should be entered according to their year group as at 01.10.25

Secondary School entrants should be entered appropriate to their age as at 01.10.25

Children attending Gaelic Medium education, regardless of age, must be entered in Fluent competitions and not learner competitions, as stated in Mòd Àird nam Murchan rules.

Participants from all areas should conform to the programme as set out by the committee.

The committee aims to allocate the running order in a manner fair to all participants.

Whilst every attempt is made to minimise potential competition clashes, these will occur – the committee asks that if there is a problem, the room stewards are notified of this as soon as possible.

First Prize winners are expected to perform in the Evening

CLOSING DATE – FRIDAY 9TH MAY 2024

No late entries accepted
